

ECSL Study Information

Study participants wanted:

Working in shared office spaces:

Do you share your office workspace with one or more colleagues? Then we are looking for you! This study investigates the effects of indoor environment in the office workspaces on employees.

Compensation: 60€

Why participate?

Your participation helps us to understand your experiences of working in a shared office space and lays the foundation for developing future shared work environments. Gain valuable insights that could help you improve your work environment.

Duration

Two weeks (approximately, 25 minutes)

Confidentiality

All your data will be treated as strictly confidential.

Please scan the QR code to participate in the study.

We look forward to your participation!

